Let me help you bring
Healing, Comfort,
Peace and Calm To Your Life.
It's Time, Call Me.

God Bless All The Families and Friends of Saint Michael's Parish.

Today I am simply writing to say thank you. But, my most number one thank you will go to my Lord Jesus Christ, who has allowed me to one of His Spiritual Leaders here on earth, and allowing me to be surrounded by such exceptional people. This, was my present of my lifetime to serve Him. Thank you to all who were able to attend my celebration of Priesthood of Twenty Years last Sunday, and for those who could not be there, thank you for your congratulations and cards. Thoughts of you were with me.

These twenty years have been the most amazing, spiritual years of my life. I am so very thankful for all who have been placed in my journey of life by our Lord. You are such an amazing congregation and it has been such a blessing to be your Pastor. I am continually blown away by your compassion generosity and willingness to serve your Church. I can only hope that I have inspired all of you as much as you have inspired me.

I'd like to thank every member of Saint Michael's, both the present members and the past. Thank you for the part that you have played in making this such a special community. The best part of my celebration was seeing all of you and all the smiles and chatting and pure happiness that was so present. This, believe it or not is the only satisfaction I needed. I loved to see the happiness, love, and all the congregation together enjoying the day.

Thank you for taking your time to attend my 20th Celebration—your attendance and words that day meant more than you could probably realize. This is what makes my journey as a Priest such a Blessing.

Thank you Jesus!
Fr. Minhyun

Our Greatest Gift Returned to God

The Peter's Pence collection is a gesture of solidarity. Through it, every member of the faithful can participate in the Pope's activity. It is an activity that supports the most needy and ecclesial communities in difficulty who approach the Apostolic See for help.

It is an ancient practice which began with the first community of the apostles. It continues to be repeated because charity distinguishes the disciples of Jesus: "From this, they will all know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (Jn. 13, 35).

With this gift, we can broaden our gaze and our hearts to embrace the Church scattered throughout the world. The Church then becomes a companion for families and peoples on their journey toward human, spiritual and material development, for the benefit of all societies.

Peter's Pence represents a small offering, accompanied by grand desires and visions. It is an offering that each member of the faithful decides to give to the Pope so that he can provide for the needs of the entire Church, especially in those places where the Church experiences greater difficulties.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Independence Day is the national holiday of the United States of America commemorating the signing of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. At the time of the signing the US consisted of 13 colonies under the rule of England's King George III. There was growing unrest in the colonies concerning the taxes that had to be paid to England. This was commonly referred to as "Taxation without Representation" as the colonists did not have any representation in the English Parliament and had no say in what went on. As the unrest grew in the colonies, King George sent extra troops to help control any rebellion. In 1774 the 13 colonies sent delegates to Philadelphia Pennsylvania to form the First Continental Congress. The delegates were unhappy with England, but were not yet ready to declare war.

In April 1775 as the King's troops advanced on Concord Massachusetts Paul Revere would sound the alarm that "The British are coming, the British are coming" as he rode his horse through the late night streets.

The battle of Concord and its "shot heard round the world" would mark the unofficial beginning of the colonies war for Independence. The following May the colonies again sent delegates to the Second Continental Congress. For almost a year the congress tried to work out its differences with England, again without formally declaring war.

By June 1776 their efforts had become hopeless and a committee was formed to compose a formal declaration of independence. Headed by Thomas Jefferson, the committee included John Adams, Benjamin Franklin, Robert R. Livingston and Roger Sherman. Thomas Jefferson was chosen to write the first draft which was presented to the congress on June 28. After various changes a vote was taken late in the afternoon of July 4th. Of the 13 colonies, 9 voted in favor of the Declaration, 2 – Pennsylvania and South Carolina voted No, Delaware undecided and New York abstained.

To make it official John Hancock, President of the Continental Congress, signed the Declaration of Independence. It is said that John Hancock signed his name "with a great flourish" so "King George can read that without spectacles!"

The following day copies of the Declaration were distributed. The first newspaper to print the Declaration was the Pennsylvania Evening Post on July 6, 1776. On July 8th the Declaration had its first public reading in Philadelphia's Independence Square. Twice that day the Declaration was read to cheering crowds and pealing church bells. Even the bell in Independence Hall was rung. The "Province Bell" would later be renamed "Liberty Bell" after its inscription –And although the signing of the Declaration was not completed until August, the 4th of July has been accepted as the official anniversary of United States independence. The first Independence Day celebration took place the following year – July 4 1777. By the early 1800s the traditions of parades, picnics, and fireworks were established as the way to celebrate America's birthday. And although fireworks have been banned in most places because of their danger, most towns and cities usually have big firework displays for all to see and enjoy.
