Brothers and Sisters of St. Michael's Church,

On Thursday, June 07th, the Class of 2019 Graduated from Notre Dame Academy. Looking out at the pews of the children of our community it brought back many memories of my own childhood of how beautiful and carefree our lives were when we were children. The world is ours, we had no fears, we had no money problems, everything is straight forward with nothing but fun and laughter. Yes, those were the days, those were the days.

I am not by any intention saying our children do not have burdens in their lives, because unfortunately they do. It seems the biggest problem facing our children today is bullying, so out of control due to technology reaching everyone in minutes—therefore showing a secret told and a picture shown and now everyone knows. To deal or not knowing how to deal with the embarrassment so many of our youth find the only way out of this is by suicide. I know when I was in grammar school this word was not even in my vocabulary, but today with all the technology our children are harassed, made fun of and told kill yourself if you have the nerve. Bullies are the terrible persons that take our children and not allow them to have peace in their lives—they are not happy until our child cannot take it anymore, the snickers, the laughter at them, the constant condemning or one of belittlement. This is our world today for our innocent children.

These are the times that we need family prayer each night, family talks, family participation and for parents to grab the sadness and watch the children not sink to the worst scenario-death. People are cruel, we all know this, many of us can handle it, but there are those who cannot and figure the only way out is death. I ask all of our parents, guardians, grandparents to show our children love, participate in their problems, talk to them, let them know they are loved, don't let dark shadows darken their childhood life. Get involved in their life.

God Bless Our Children.
Fr. Minhyun

An important Jewish and Christian feast. The Jewish feast of Pentecost, in Hebrew Shavuot [Heb., = weeks], Jewish feast celebrated on the 6th of the month of Sivan (usually some time in May) in Israel and on the sixth and seventh days in the Diaspora. Originally an agricultural festival celebrating the end of the winter grain harvest (which began at Passover),

The Feast of Weeks, one of the three pilgrimage festivals, arose as the celebration of the closing of the spring grain harvest, which began formally in Passover 50 days prior; there are numerous references to it in the Bible. From Rabbinic times, the festival commemorates the giving of the law to Moses at Mt. Sinai.

On the Pentecost after the resurrection of Jesus (50 days from the Passover in which He was crucified), the Holy Spirit, according to the Acts of the Apostles, descended on the disciples in the form of tongues of fire accompanied by the sound of a rush of wind, and gave them the power of speaking in such a way that people of different languages could understand them. The Christian feast of Pentecost is an annual commemoration of this event, and it is solemnly observed as the birthday of the church and the feast of the Holy Spirit.

In ecclesiastical calendars Pentecost is the seventh Sunday after Easter and closes Eastertide. In the Western Church there are special observances, e.g., a penitential vigil, and in ancient times neophytes were baptized at this time. From the white garments of these converts comes Whitsunday, an English name for Pentecost. The great liturgical Latin hymns Veni Creator Spiritus and Veni Sancte Spiritus were composed for Pentecost. The Sunday after Pentecost is Trinity Sunday; until Advent the weeks are counted from Pentecost or Trinity.

An Apple A Day and The Bible

For Christians who educate children and teens, prayer is essential. Those who pray with our students have prayers that come from a variety of Catholic and other Christian sources, including saints, theologians, our priests, philosophers, and classic prayer books. They are for teachers, daycare workers, parents, babysitters, and principals. This is a very important part of our day. Prayer is powerful and Prayer is needed. The miracles that happen when we pray is an amazing feeling that happens to us as we experience the Power of God with Prayer.

May God's blessing go with us today

*May God's blessing go with us today,
At the end of this school year we pray.
That you keep us safe and give us rest
So we start again renewed and refreshed.
Full of health, full of fun
Ready to come and learn again.*

*May God's blessing go with us today,
As we begin our school holiday.
Give your peace and your joy,
To every girl and every boy.

and prepare and plan for the new intake.*

*May God's blessings await us next year,
To embrace each new challenge without fear.
Fill Notre Dame Academy and all
The Schools in Palisades Park with your love, and guide our hearts from above.
Full of faith, full of hope,
full of joy, and full of love.*

Amen.
