The 2019 Archbishop's Annual Appeal 2019

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I humbly ask your prayerful consideration of a gift to the 2019 Annual Appeal. *Serving God's People.

Your help is needed now more than ever-to proclaim the Gospel, to pass on the faith to future generations, and to care for the poor and vulnerable. Now is not the time to give up on the Church. Now is the time to renew our efforts to be Christ's hands and feet, His mind and heart, in the service of others. Let us respond with gratitude as responsible and generous steward of God's many gifts.

Let me help you bring
Healing, Comfort,
Peace and Calm To Your Life.
It's Time, Call Me.

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

The Lord is truly risen. This is the truth of Easter. This is the truth that we celebrate. This is the truth that we give witness to.

This is the truth of Easter. Our Lord Jesus Christ who died on the Cross has risen and is now alive. He rose from the dead and opened for us eternal life with God. In the Gospel, the message of the Angel to the women who went to see the tomb is encouraging: “Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him.’” (Mt. 28.5-7) Like Mary Magdalene and the other Mary, this good news should be a cause of great joy for us!

This is the truth that we celebrate. Our Lord Jesus Christ is with us and will forever be present in our midst. He is true to his promise. He is alive. He wants to meet us in Galilee. What is the significance of Galilee? It was Jesus’ home. It was where Jesus’ followers lived. It was also the place where many significant events took place as Jesus fulfills his mission. Even now, Jesus wants to meet us where we live. He wants to find a dwelling there. He wants to entrust us with a mission of making his presence known and experienced by everyone.

This is the truth that we give witness to in our daily lives. We need to tell the world around us, Jesus is risen and he is with us. We need to show the world that we are witnesses to this truth. We are his disciples. We need to be faithful to Jesus who appears to the disciples and assures them: “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of age.” (Mt. 28.18-20) A witness is someone who testifies to the truth. It is our responsibility as followers of Jesus to give witness to his truth with the way we live our respective lives. May we show to the world around us that we are people who believe and give witness to the resurrection of Jesus, that we are Easter people!

My sincere appreciation to all of you for making our Lenten and Easter celebrations prayerful and beautiful. Let us continue to renew our faith in the Risen Lord as we gather daily and weekly to celebrate God’s everlasting presence among us in the Eucharist. Happy Easter and happy renewal of our baptismal promises!
With my Easter prayers and blessings,

Fr. Minhyun

Christ Has Risen Luke 24:1-7

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ³but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. ⁵In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead?” ⁶He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee

Empty Tomb

“He is not here; he has risen!” Those are the words that Mary heard at the tomb. Early that morning the earth shook, the stone rolled away, and the tomb was empty. He had indeed risen from the grave just as he had said he would. Mary in her grief forgot that. She came with some other women to anoint Jesus with spices and prepare him for a proper burial. She was grieving the loss and wondering what was going to happen next. To her surprise she got to the tomb and found it empty. Jesus was alive but Mary wasn’t believing yet. In John 20:15 she mistook Jesus for the gardener. It wasn’t until Jesus got her attention that it all came into focus. He was alive.

Abundant Life

Sometimes we forget that Jesus was resurrected. Not in our memory but in how we live our lives. You see we look to the cross because that represents our sins being forgiven. We often forget what the resurrection means. We forget that when we choose to follow Jesus death no longer has a grip on us; it can’t hold us down, (Acts 2:24) We also forget that the resurrection brings us hope. John 10:10 says “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly”. This abundant life isn’t just in heaven it’s for right now. Satan tries to steal our joy, but Jesus brings it to us in abundance. Finally, we forget that the resurrection also brings us a greater purpose. 2 Corinthians 5:15 says “And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.” The life we embark upon once we follow Jesus has way more in store than any life that we can muster on our own. Don’t forget today that when the angel says that Jesus rose what that fully means. Happy Easter!

On Saturday, April 27th at 11:30am The Children of Saint Michael's Church CCD Class will Celebrate the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

Congratulations and God Bless You.

Three Little Trees.....

Once upon a mountain top, three little trees stood and dreamed of what they wanted to become when they grew up. The first little tree looked up at the stars and said: "I want to hold treasure. I want to be covered with gold and filled with precious stones. I'll be the most beautiful treasure chest in the world!" The second little tree looked out at the small stream trickling by on its way to the ocean. "I want to be traveling mighty waters and carrying powerful kings. I'll be the strongest ship in the world!" The third little tree looked down into the valley below where busy men and women worked in a busy town. "I don't want to leave the mountain top at all. I want to grow so tall that when people stop to look at me, they'll raise their eyes to heaven and think of God. I will be the tallest tree in

Continued ...Years passed and the little trees grew tall. One day three woodcutters climbed the mountain. The first woodcutter looked at the first tree and said, "This tree is beautiful. It is perfect for me." With a swoop of his shining ax, the first tree fell. "Now I shall be made into a beautiful chest, I shall hold wonderful treasure!" the first tree said. The second woodcutter looked at the second tree and said, "This tree is strong. It is perfect for me." With a swoop of his shining ax, the second tree fell. "Now I shall sail mighty waters!" thought the second tree. "I shall be a strong ship for mighty kings!" The third tree felt her heart sink when the last woodcutter looked her way. She stood straight and tall and pointed bravely to heaven. But the woodcutter never even looked up. "Any kind of tree will do for me." He muttered. With a swoop of his shining ax the third tree fell.

"I want to hold treasure."

The first tree rejoiced when the woodcutter brought her to a carpenter's shop. But the carpenter fashioned the tree into a feed box for animals. The once beautiful tree was not covered with gold or filled with treasure. She was coated with sawdust and filled with hay for hungry farm animals. The second tree smiled when the woodcutter took her to a shipyard, but no mighty ship was made that day. Instead, the once strong tree was hammered and sawed into a simple fishing boat. She was too small and too weak to sail to an ocean, or even a river. Instead she was taken to a little lake. The third tree was confused when the woodcutter cut her into strong beams and left her in a lumberyard. "What happened?" The once tall tree wondered. "All I ever wanted was to stay on the mountain top and point to God..."

"I want to be a ship that carries a powerful king."

Many, many days and nights passed. The three trees nearly forgot their dreams. But one night, golden starlight poured over the first tree as a young woman placed her newborn baby in the feed box. "I wish I could make a cradle for him," her husband whispered. The mother squeezed his hand and smiled as the starlight shone on the smooth and the sturdy wood. "This manger is beautiful," she said. And suddenly the first tree knew he was holding the greatest treasure in the world. One evening a tired traveler and his friends crowded into the old fishing boat. The traveler fell asleep as the second tree quietly sailed out into the lake. Soon a thundering and thrashing storm arose. The little tree shuddered. She knew she did not have the strength to carry so many passengers safely through the wind and the rain. The tired man awakened. He stood up, stretched out his hand and said, "Peace." The storm stopped as quickly as it had begun. And suddenly the second tree knew he was carrying the King of heaven and earth.

"I want to grow tall and point to God."

One Friday morning, the third tree was startled when her beams were yanked from the forgotten woodpile. She flinched as she was carried through an angry jeering crowd. She shuddered when soldiers nailed a man's hands to her. As she was lifted up on the mountain top she felt ugly and harsh and cruel. But on Sunday morning, when the sun rose and the earth trembled with joy beneath her, the third tree knew that God's love had changed everything. Now every time people saw her she could point them to God, and that was what she wanted all along.
