Saint Michael's Spanish Community

One week ago Saint Michael's Spanish Community had a wonderful gala and raised money from the concert. They have given the money to our parish to be used for whatever we have in mind to repair or improve!

One thing for sure there is always something that is breaking down, needs fixing, needs new, or so many other things to be done.

So, we say Thank You for your much needed generosity in sharing your hard earned money with your parish.

Let me help you bring Healing, Comfort,
Peace and Calm To Your Life.
It's Time, Call Me.

Dear Parishioners,

As I was traveling home from the Archdiocese of Newark's Cardinal's Convocation a few weeks ago, my mind visited discussions had taken place and my mind today seems to have settled on Abortion. This past February 11th, 2019 –Abortion Legislation took place. The word alone makes shivers go up and down my arms. During the past 2000 years there have been so many advances in science, medicine, language and technology. And yet, when I heard the cheers and applause for passing late term abortion legislation, I thought of the crowds of people who cheered for those who died in the arenas of the Roman Empire, simply to provide entertainment. Some also died because of their refusal to worship the pagan god's of the empire. The Roman Empire was the most powerful and technologically advanced empire in the west. This empire reached its zenith, and then began to decline, until its society fell into chaos, and was run by the barbarian hords in a vacuum created by the collapse of political and social order, it was the followers of Jesus, once persecuted, who began to rebuild every aspect of society.

The daily killing of the unborn remains our societies greatest sorrow. To take the life of a nine-month old baby is little more than state sanctioned murder. We have all kinds of laws that make this illegal to kill certain endangered species of wild life and plants, yet none for the life of an unborn innocent child. If the practice of abortion is allowed to go unchecked, then like the Roman Empire of old, our society will begin to fall apart and descend into darkness and chaos. When the most precious gift of life is taken away from humanity in its most fragile state, then what will happen to the members of a society that has lost its moral compass, its moral identity, and most of all its human dignity and respect for the other.

I feel it is a very important thing to remember, that bad things happen, when good people say and do nothing. One day we will all be called upon to give an accounting of our life. What will we say when we hear the words, I was an unborn child, and you did not protect my life, our response may be but Lord when were you an unborn child and we did not protect you? And he will say, whatever you did to this child, or failed to do to this child, you failed to do it to me.

I pray that we will see Jesus and ourselves in the unborn child, and do what needs to be done, while we have the opportunity to do something. The practice of abortion cannot continue unchecked without serious consequences to our society and every person in it. May God give us the grace to live our faith in word and deed, and have the followers of Jesus do right through out history. May God bless the good work He has begun in us and see it to completion.

Saint Bonaventure Feast Day-July 15th-

St. Bonaventure, known as "the seraphic doctor," was born at Bagnoregio, in the Lazio region of central Italy, in 1221. He received the name of Bonaventure in consequence of an exclamation of St. Francis of Assisi, when, in response to the pleading of the child's mother, the saint prayed for John's recovery from a dangerous illness, and, foreseeing the future greatness of the little John, cried out "O Buona ventura"-O good fortune!

At the age of twenty-two St. Bonaventure entered the Franciscan Order. Having made his vows, he was sent to Paris to complete his studies under the celebrated doctor Alexander of Hales, an Englishman and a Franciscan. After the latter's death he continued his course under his successor, John of Rochelle. In Paris he became the intimate friend of the great St. Thomas Aquinas. He received the degree of Doctor, together with St. Thomas Aquinas, ceding to his friend against the latter's inclination, the honor of having it first conferred upon him. Like St. Thomas Aquinas, he enjoyed the friendship of the holy King, St. Louis.

At the age of thirty-five he was chosen General of his Order and restored a perfect calm where peace had been disturbed by internal dissensions. He did much for his Order and composed The Life of St. Francis. He also assisted at the translation of the relics of St. Anthony of Padua. He was nominated Archbishop of York by Pope Clement IV, but he begged not to be forced to accept that dignity. Gregory X obliged him to take upon himself a greater one, that of Cardinal and Bishop of Albano, one of the six suffragan Sees of Rome. Before his death he abdicated his office of General of the Franciscan Order. He died while he was assisting at the Second Council of Lyons, on July 15, 1274.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel –July 16th-

This feast was instituted by the Carmelites between 1376 and 1386 under the title "Commemoratio B. Marif Virg. duplex" to celebrate the victory of their order over its enemies on obtaining the approbation of its name and constitution from Honorius III on 30 Jan., 1226 (see Colvenerius, "Kal. Mar.", 30 Jan. "Summa Aurea", III, 737). The feast was assigned to 16 July, because on that date in 1251, according to Carmelite traditions, the scapular was given by the Blessed Virgin to St. Simon Stock; it was first approved by Sixtus V in 1587. After Cardinal Bellarmine had examined the Carmelite traditions in 1609, it was declared the patronal feast of the order, and is now celebrated in the Carmelite calendar as a major double of the first class with a vigil and a privileged octave (like the octave of Epiphany, admitting only a double of the first class) under the title "Commemoratio solemniss B.V.M. de Monte Carmelo". By a privilege given by Clement X in 1672, continued....

admitting only a double of the first class) under the title "Commemoratio solemniss B.V.M. de Monte Carmelo". By a privilege given by Clement X in 1672, some Carmelite monasteries keep the feast on the Sunday after 16 July, or on some other Sunday in July. .... In the seventeenth century the feast was adopted by several dioceses in the south of Italy, although its celebration, outside of Carmelite churches, was prohibited in 1628 by a decree contra abusum. On 21 Nov., 1674, however, it was first granted by Clement X to Spain and its colonies, in 1675 to Austria, in 1679 to Portugal and its colonies, in 1675 to Austria, in 1679 to Portugal and its colonies, and in 1725 to the Papal States of the Church, on 24 Sept., 1726, it was extended to the entire Latin Church by Benedict XIII.

The lessons contain the legend of the scapular; the promise of the Sabbatine privilege was inserted into the lessons by Paul V about 1614. The Greeks of southern Italy and the Catholic Chaldeans have adopted this feast of the "Vestment of the Blessed Virgin Mary". The object of the feast is the special predilection of Mary for those who profess themselves her servants by wearing her scapular (see CARMELITES).

Saint Camillus de Lellis -July 18th-

St. Camillus de Lellis was born at Bocchianico, Italy. He fought for the Venetians against the Turks, was addicted to gambling, and by 1574 was penniless in Naples. He became a Capuchin novice, but was unable to be professed because of a diseased leg he contracted while fighting the Turks. He devoted himself to caring for the sick, and became director of St. Giacomo Hospital in Rome. He received permission from his confessor (St. Philip Neri) to be ordained and decided, with two companions, to found his own congregation, the Ministers of the Sick (the Camellians), dedicated to the care of the sick. They ministered to the sick of Holy Ghost Hospital in Rome, enlarged their facilities in 1585, founded a new house in Naples in 1588, and attended the plague-stricken aboard ships in Rome's harbor and in Rome. In 1591, the Congregation was made into an order to serve the sick by Pope Gregory XIV, and in 1591 and 1605, Camillus sent members of his order to minister to wounded troops in Hungary and Croatia, the first field medical unit. Gravely ill for many years, he resigned as superior of the Order in 1607 and died in Rome on July 14, the year after he attended a General Chapter there. He was canonized in 1746, was declared patron of the sick, with St. John of God, by Pope Leo XIII, and patron of nurses and nursing groups by Pope Pius XI. His feast day is July 18th.
